Jenner Asserts Jaworski
Has Tapes With 'Surprises'

CHICAGO, Sept. 22 (AP) — The former minority counsel to the House Judiciary Committee said Sunday that the special Watergate prosecutor, Leon Jaworski, has White House tapes not yet made public that provide "surprises" about Watergate.

Albert Jenner said in a radio interview Sunday that the tapes had not been received by the Judiciary Committee but were obtained by Mr. Jaworski after the Supreme Court ruled they were not protected by executive privilege.

The tapes contain damaging evidence against Watergate defendants but do not implicate any additional persons, Mr. Jenner said. He did not disclose what the evidence was or how he knew Mr. Jaworski had the tapes.
