

OCT 5 1974

Nixon Called Security Risk
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (Reuters) — Representative John E. Moss, Democrat of California, urged President Ford Thursday to halt intelligence briefings for former President Richard M. Nixon, alleging that Mr. Nixon was a security risk. Mr. Moss said Mr. Nixon should be denied access to classified Government information because he had committed illegal acts during his term as President.