

9 Jan 76

I.R.S. Head Scored for Inquiry Curbs

Washington, Jan. 8 -

[In a report on the nine-month investigation by the Oversight Subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee, Rep. Charles A. Vanik, chairman of the subcommittee, criticizes Donald C. Alexander.]

Mr. Vanik's criticism comes at a time when Mr. Alexander's future as Commissioner has been seriously questioned....

In two matters, allegations regarding the connections between Mr. Alexander's former law firm and a bank in the Bahamas, and an invitation to cruise on a yacht and meet a convicted felon, the questions have involved Mr. Alexander's integrity, not his handling of the tax agency. Both matters are under Congressional investigation. In addition, the [FBI] is looking into the boat trip invitation.

.....