

far from his California home. Schoolchildren visited it, memorabilia, went on view at the San Clemente Inn, not tion of articles he once owned, along with other Nixon Yesterday, on Richard M. Nixon's 63d birthday, a collec-United Press International

Nixon Marks 63d Birthday; Mini-Museum Opened

By EVERETT R. HOLLES Special to The New York Times

Was from his armored 9—A mini-museum of memora- affairs.
bilia of Richard M. Nixon, from "In p the chopsticks he used at a admirer. next door neighbor and ardent

Billed as "a bit of history, tional guests to his hostelry, "In putting together this colon," the exhibit occupies what twest was, until a few weeks ago, the coffee shop just off the opening of the museum, over a period of 30 years and balls includes several imprinted a half mile down the Avenida had been arranged to mart political cartoons, were not residente from Mr. Nixon's the former President's birthday leased by Mr. Nixon for the large and the return earlier in the large one. The several hundred oddly and her husband, David, from assorted souvenirs and other their visit to China. The family, oceanfront estate El Casa Paci and the return earlier in the exhibit. day of Julie Nixon Eisenhower

The only vague reminder of gif4 for Mr. Nixon from Chair-David and Jhlie Eisenhower here. Nearby were two bottles with Mr. Nixon brought with them a birthday of Russian vodka. SAN CLEMENTE, Calif., Jan. House assistant for domestic and Mrs. Nixon, perhaps tomor- with his name, more than 50 resigning his position as White hibit is being arranged for Mr. House match books inscribed on the exhibit to attract addi- to him a year ago.

However, the keepsakes from

'Little Bit of History'

items, none of which deal in a few unidentified friends, and history, had as its centerpiece of Mr. Nixon's golf bags, a documentary way with Mr. several months of Mr. Nixon's five and a half years on's staff were invited to the used by the Soviet Communist ble the mementos was Col. in the Presidency, were assem- dinner.

Party leader Leonid I. Brezhney Jack Brennan a former white Mr. Presley's "little bit of Eisenhower, stood beside one months ago was a framed letter Nixon to return to China for Soviet. Union and copies of from John D' Ehrlichman to a visit as the gufsts of PeLing, his daily White House appointthe Watergate scandal that man Mao Tse-tung and a perso-stamp covers of Mr. Nixon's brought back from the Presidence Mr. Nixon from office hal message from the Chinese briefing books for his detente dential travels by Colonel moths ago was a framed lefter Nixon for return to Chine for the Brennan.

Mr. Nixon dated April 30, 1973, A private viewing of the ex-ment schedules are White row or Sunday. tie clasps and sets of cuff but-residential pennant that flew onto " coid Mr. Broaden to the to avoid getting into Water-Inn came from 170 cartons buttons from his political camunveiled here today on acknowledged that, with Mr' and keepsakes that he persuad. Pens used to sign important former President's 63d Nixoh's help, he is counting ed the Government to return pieces of legislation are in the limousine, gate," said Mr. Presley, who of his non-Presidential papers paigns dating back to 1946. lection, we made every effort display at the San Clemente seal or foreign emblems and Many of the mementos on tons bearing the Presidential display along with menus and President Eisenhower's red leather golf bag and clubs, on loan to the exhibit by David bled in glass cases under guard

During the day, Mr. Nixon for his broadcast to the Ameri-House military aide who rethe fin and is Mr. Nixon's checkup at his home.

Party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev Jack Brennan, a former White for his broadcast to the Ameri-House military aide who represented in the mementos was Col.

Party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev Jack Brennan, a former White house military aide who represented in the mementos was Col.

Party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev Jack Brennan, a former White house military aide who represented in the mementos was Col.

Party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev Jack Brennan, a former White house military aide who represented in the mementos was Col.

From the Western White House cannot be the mementos was Col.

From the Western White House cannot be the mementos was Col.

From the Western White House cannot be the mementos was Col.

From the Western White House military aide who represented to the Ameri-House military aide wh from the Western White House several months ago to remain as his chief assistant. Many of in retirement

REMEMBER THE NEEDIEST!

photo WXP 23 Apr 76. * Nixons visited page 2, col. 2. 20 Jun 76, article See also WXP by Donnie Radcliffe, 22 Apr 76 (?) the museum