

SF Examiner JAN 11 1976
Stanford wants Nixon

The Stanford student body has asked former President Richard Nixon and black radical Angela Davis, among 33 others, if they would accept a guest professorship on the Stanford campus during the spring quarter.

Letters of inquiry were sent to them last month.

Blythe Mickelson, a member of the students' guest professorship board, said yesterday that when the board receives responses, it will recommend a guest professor to the student senate.
