Paramount Pictures has bought movie rights to John D. Ehrlichman's novel, "The Company," for a reported $75,000. The book, to be published in July by Simon & Schuster, is a sort of roman a clef dealing with a Water-gate-like upheaval in Washington. Mr. Ehrlichman is living in Santa Fe, N.M., while appealing his Water-gate conviction. A Paramount said yesterday, "It is too early to discuss our plans for 'The Company.'"
