Agnew plans 'new political career'

ATHENS (AP) — Former Vice President Agnew, once a critic of television news, will become a "special political commentator" for two U.S. television networks, a Greek newspaper reported yesterday.

The newspaper Vima did not identify the networks. It also quoted Agnew as saying in an interview that he hopes to begin his political career again soon. Agnew, visiting Greece with his wife, could not be reached for confirmation.
