

Attica-blacks. I have a longo AP Pinto story in today's Post, so don't copy, thanks. Regret all my fears seem to have become realities and the influence of my suggestions of what should have been insisted upon immediately was largely ignored. The in-court consequences may be quite serious. The inability of some many of the politically-active blacks to learn is depressing, as is their inability to trust whites, per se...Nothing new in Post on China, but I have a hunch that whatever has happened will soon become knowledge and reported, as such things are reported, if that is the word, Lil had done about 3", and that much looks good.
This brings her into the second color, and I think it is a real baby tone. Best, HW
