

10/17--to record a hunch: Nixon doesn't expect ready confirmation of his announced candidates. When he gets less than glowing ABA reports he'll come up with those who seem to be better qualified, like B. perhaps, and will have the side benefit of having told the racists and the extreme right, see, I tried for you: I'm really your man. Thus he will expect to make inroads into the Wallace camp. The ploy on women is obvious. Even James Kilpatrick, an old racist from his News-Leader days, admitted last night that the entire list was poor. H

OCT 24 1971