

10/19-Some time ago I asked you to be alert to anything on a Connecticut case (Miller) where Foreman got an innocent man convicted. I learned the name of the lawyer, wrote him, got a very encouraging and sympathetic response, together with a bit of information I have to find time to read, expect to hear more, so don't spend a second on it. I am not satisfied he and the prosecutor both hold suspicions similar to mine. Time, time, time...for too much.
