

10/24--If in this envelope one of the clip I am to return is not included, it is because of the moving problem in getting to my machine. I'll do it but I have the machine blocked off with the table and other things I am using to repage PM, which is also well scattered....When I enclose a Buchwald column, it is because Lil has clipped it for me and I think perhaps you may want a dupe...We both had disagreeable legal work to do yesterday and again today, so Lil thought we should "relax" a bit by looking at a rereading of a movie we had liked many years ago, Death Takes a Holiday. I didn't enjoy it, but it gave me a chance to observe progress on the blanket, about a third done now. It took the hour and a half of that movie for her to do two lines across, Je will probably know the proper designation, maybe rows?? She is well into the Chinese character, going from bottom up... This a.m.'s Mutual news carried a story saying one of Ray's former lawyers says he didn't care about getting caught because he expected Wallace to be elected and to pardon him. Whether this is a fact or not is irrelevant to me, and I have no idea whether or not it is, but I am interested in the lawyers always sounding off and the silence of the press on the impropriety. The Wash Post was also silent this a.m., no story. JER will probably send it to me from the local papers, if they carry it, but this is not certain. So, if you see it, I'd appreciate a copy...As soon as I can make it, I'll be sending you a copy of an editorial article on the early IndoChina sit, 1954, by Chalmers Roberts in today's Post. It is a half-page. The local paper has a copying machine that takes a full half page, and the cost is slight, so instead of asking you to return it after copying, which will be a nuisance with your M, I'll do this and you can keep it, as I think you may want to do. I have it marked in ways to attract my attention when I return to the writing of TIGER. Best, HW
