

JAN 9 1972

ReShannon's S-I bit on Rehnquist: that famous Goldwater comment on extremist and moderation was not his own. It was written by Karl Hess, now a fellow of the left Institute for Policy Studies and a radical. As recently as an ETV show aired this week Karl affirmed both the words and the continuing wisdom they contain. H if you have no interest in the marshall enclosures or those i will send, perhaps hal will. too bad i'm handicapped, for there is more i ~~shou~~ should write. confidential, of course lil makes my setups for me, folds the letters, etc., and as i have already, i'll mail what i've not sent already because i became an accomplished one-hand dtiver not too long after puberty. and the automatic shift makes it a snap, even with 95,000 miles on the aging chariot. sorry about the poor quality of some of the carbons. because it hurts even to put the sheets into the mill, i want to do as much as i can when lil is home, so imay, after a brief period of hoped-for recession in the throbbing, undertake more. H

JAN 9 1972