Note dropped in before envelope is sealed and snatched away;

Your #14 just in, with copy of Contemporary Authors stuff on Hunt.* Didn't keep a copy of the Who's Who breakdown we sent you, but from what we remember of it, doesn't match Cont. Auth. biography. Don't want to ~~take~~ do the Who's Who thing over again, so could you send us a copy - or send it back and we'll copy and return it to you?

* We're curious that he gives his father's name as Dietrich, which is supposed to be a pseudonym.

Thus in my quests I've included mother's maiden name, of which no indication of use but typical, easy to remember. Note also that novel listings are not consistent, either. Don't make a special trip, but when you are next in library, would you please see if there is a Toterdale, especially Gene or Eugene? But not worth trouble, unless you have Who's Who at home.

Nothing today's (7/25) Post, natural enough when there is a definite and official link to the "epublican hierarchy for the first time. Nothing on a.m. news radio or TV, last night Chi. now, of what I heard before falling asleep and when I roused and when I got out of bed at former waking hour and got a drink (big deal then demotion Leo The Lip Durocher).

Your tabulation enclosed. Didn't run through second time because that decreases life while blackening. Do you want xeroxes Who's Who? H
