Finished Epilogue tonight so that I've got plenty to do if ortho man recommends surgery tomorrow. Most of what will be needed will take but one hand if he does...Dpn't think I'll need blue pencil much and wish I thought I've be able to use shears more... But it is a real expose of real dirty doins...If the Times carries much on Boyd Douglas, as I think I said, I will be interested. Hope the defense thinks to look at more than the Jencks decision on their fight vs the judge who turned down their motion for all files on him. If you do not remember or were not here (and I went into this in COUP), the decision bears the name of the accused, but the story is that of Harvey Mstusow, and the entire story is relevant. With snow still 3' high in some places, it got up to 77 today. Rare! Couldn't get into it, tho. until I went for Lil, and tonight she wasn't late. First time in almost 2 months. Not much of worth on China in Post today, but more than top half p. 1 on it. ... With the invite to the nonentities Scott and Mansfield, who do you think Chou is reading, Drury or Manckiewicz? Best regards, HW
