one. When you mentioned Matt, it meant nothing. When you mentioned Herron, it also meant nothing. Then we inferred that Matt and Herron were the same person. The combination of Tables rang a faint bell, and we felt we had heard the name somewhere. Looked in our NO card request for an opinion. We know you tried hard to fill usy in, but there are just too many strange characters involved for us to venture through their own lenses, but never or rarely ordinary. So we're at sea. The only thing I'd venture to say is that anyone who would mark a letter to you "EMERGENCY" is dangerously subjective and has a formidable but no indication he testified. And a photographer. In my experience photographers can be anytying, with their special way of seeing the world through their own lenses, but never or rarely ordinary. So we're at index, which shows him as subpoenaed as a Shaw witness (for the defense) blind spot of some kind. Beyond that it would be unwise to extrapolate from this uninformed sector. Returning herewith your letter to the girl who was in NO and your
