

KPFA, Berkeley

28 June 1973

32 mins

Donald Freed, interviewed by Pat Roberto.
(intv runs over on to Side 2 about 2 minutes)

HW:

This tape, taken with the attached news item about Ellsberg going for the "Reichstag Fire" theory about Watergate, is guaranteed to fix any problem you may have about low blood pressure. However, you should know what such people are saying, so I send it along.

This was run at the end of KPFA's nightly summary of the day's Watergate hearing, 28 June, or the fourth day of Dean's testimony, and the day Sen. Weicker got mad and said his piece. The total ran more than three hours.

Freed, despite his great skill at jumping to conclusions, still has some interesting ideas.
