

Perhaps I mailed an envelope yesterday without return address sticker. This in case it doesn't arrive. Postmark should be 7/29 for it was left in a box from which there is Sunday collection. REC 'D

Occasion for rare Sundat leaving may amuse. 70th birthday party for an old friend who pulled one of the greatest p.r. stunts of all time, getting the King and Queen of England to eat jacketed (jacket mfrs his client) hot dogs at Hyde Park. He contrived it by getting prominent anti-FDR socialites to protest what Eleanor had not planned, serving hot dogs. The made Eleanor so mad she decided to do it and wrote about it in her column.

His son of a late second marriage (also there but not chance to talk to him until too late) lived in China recently. After divorce wife married Jewish-named U.S. correspondent resident there. Forget name. 7/30
