

In an earlier note I referred to <sup>MAY 25 1973</sup> one Larry Grantwohl as Grant Wohl, based on hearing the name by phone and in ellipsis. Ref. NYTimes Hersh stroy 5/20. Based on my Minuteman material, I can make a prima facie case that he caused the Wilkinson explosion in Grenwich Village in which those Weatherkinds were killed. He is said to be in SF area, so I'd appreciate any scrap that may appear on him. Suppose the feds were really responsible? It now seems pretty clear that Lesar and I will collaborate on The Informers. He'll be up as soon as he gets back from Bay area, rprobably late tonight, unless the visit of his in-laws from Singapore causes delay for past holiday weekend I'll be giving him enough for the complete book. This could be a thing. We are thinking of a pice based on it for something like Washingtonian, on the chance of getting attention to the book. HW 5/25/75
