

The "Rev" Broshears who has been getting attention out there with his "Purple Panthers" is the same guy who made all those elaborate and unsubstantiated allegations during the Shaw business and got so big a play from the L.S. nuts. He also claimed to have lived with Ferrie. He did have a N.O. career, the last of which I know ending when Ivon and others eased him out of town. He was a great busiance and as large a braggart.
