Your card is far and away the most beautiful we've gotten, more so because of the personal effort. More appreciated because ^{of} the talent! It is one of those that Lil (who is busy setting up partnership books on the new book before she gets into the tax season) will keep where we can see it after Xmas. Thanks. ... I don't think the enclose letters to the nets will do any good. But I decided to take the time on the ~~slight~~^{slight} chance the changed national situation and the ~~diminished~~^{dimini} value of the nets' holdings might make it worth the time. ... There is more on the Bud front but I haven't heard. Jim was to have called me day before yesterday but hasn't. (When his wife lost their first child at the fifth month and when she is about in the seventh I'm a little concerned.) I did not let Bud know I knew of this newest stupidity in the hope that after talking to me Jim might influence him. I'll be writing of it. It involves an in-jail threat leaked to a prisoner who told his lawyer who phoned Bud who did Nothing but what was wrong. HW 12/26/74
