

JAN 24 1974
This special note so you will NOT copy the Krogh statement from the NYTimes 1/25/74. I got it this a.m. and have read it. I still find it in part equivocal, exploiting such words as "specific" and "direct" as means of sheltering GL. All these anti-democrats, all those who believe they hold principles, like Krogh, when they confess, as he did, face internal problems: how could they have been so deceived, how c could they have so deceived themselves, how could they have been so wrong in ~~see~~ seeing Nixon as a man of principle? Sp, it is not only a question of deception where it is intended, it is also one a inability to face the enormity of what each one did and was part of and of how completely wrong he had been.
