

JDW, Ur 3/15: Mailer: he has copped out already. Almost certain when he tied up with CTIA & Bud. I picked a fight because he was encouraging Lesar then doing nothing except making excuses about how painful it is to have to make millions (literally). Since then learned he has combined with CARIC....Machete: I have a small handaxe, a punk boy-scout hatchet and several small saws (chiefly prunings and all dulled from rocks as I use them below earth's surface) but nothing is as convenient as a machete for those things for which I use it. Also less jarring, easier on bursitis in shoulders. The trouble is not with the tool. I get careless and too tired. With what the ribbin ink did ~~with~~ to the bandage I'll have The Grand Unveiling when I bring Lil home. Sure it is coming along well, thanks. ... Indictments memos: check and on your belief GL is not benefitted. Nor by his Grand Old Opry or Executive Club type appearances, which do no more than buck him and his up. The big thing he has going is cowardice elsewhere, everywhere. I am more inclined to the view that the grand jury wanted to do more than Jaworski would permit and that the 3/21/73 stuff thus could not be avoided. By now you have a notion of what was re 6/20, where Je is retrieving the greatest!...Another student here today (34 yrs old and willing to work between graduation and opening school she'll teach) breaks day up hence bits of responses.
