

MAR 3 1977

I did not forget the Bradley Sunday piece on his trip to Cuba. I did not get to read it until last night. It is vacuous, hardly a justification for the apparent purpose, an all-expense-paid vacation. I can conceive of other purposes, from spooking to diplomacy. HW 3/8/77