

I've been clipping the Sally Quinn Cuba series intending to read it. But there are so many other things to read I won't. The first discouraged this anyway. I'll continue clipping them and will send them 3cl. I have the first part to I think the sixth folded in order. I'll add the others as they appear. There may be some worth in them but not compared to the CIA records I've not had time to read. And I'm getting more. Plus soon I'll have to start writing with more than 500 FBI pages a week to read and annotate. Now I may have to make a trip to Dallas. I rather look forward to that.
