

JDW: Re Auschwitz story, do not recall thatbgraf from WxPost but do from TV coverage, which had CIA types explaining the camp was not detected because of concentration on industrial targets. Something like not detecting a fire because it is at an icehouse. ...Hinckle FBO column particularly interesting. ...Last of snow finally disappeared in heavy srping rains and I'm cooling off after a sweat at getting out last of lop wood of trees feeled for firewood before heavy snow, which I did not battle this year. Off lane and road, that is...All may or may not be quite here, depending on what the appeals court means in a hurry-up order of yesterday for filings by what amounts to tomorrow because JL was scheduled to leave town and had to and Howard, who took over in extremis, has togo to Puerto Rico for his law firm...Maybe Hinckle-ish, as I think. ...Lil is busy on taxes, I on FOIA, and with the revenue from a few speeches I have a bright and I think dependdable part-time college student helping clean up the filing, which is really non-filing mess in the cellar. ...Hosty clip also valuable. Longest use of AP copy I've seen and tells me he retired, Using it in appeal already drafted. ...
