

"Among the official dissenters to the increased level of U.S. participation ... was Nathaniel Davis, who resigned in August as director of the State Department's Bureau of African Affairs." State Department sources attribute his resignation to conflict with Kissinger over U.S. position on Angola.

~~XX~~ ~~XXXXXXX~~
SFC 15 Dec 75 [WXP]

Stories not systematically clipped until 20? Dec 75