

NYT Pictures/Ingeborg Lips Miguel N'Zau Puna, second from left, general secretary of the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola (UNITA), explaining the use of an American 87-mm. rocket launcher to soldiers near Huambo.

Kissinger Said to Warn Allon of Angola Danger

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8—Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger has told Foreign Minister Yigal Allon of Israel that Russians.

In Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could encourage Arab countries to is invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could encourage Arab countries to is invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to in its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to in its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Kissinger's view, Lins could be accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Allon accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Allon accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Allon accountable to a new attack on its invited to participate.

Mr. Allon accountable to more jeopardized in the long run by developments in Angola than by the debate on the Middle East, and cil, Israeli sources said today.

In their private talks yesterday, Mr. Kissinger reportedly told the visiting Israeli officials that if the United States, because of Congressional opposition, failed to halt Soviet military activities in Angola, the Soviet Union and others might over the talks had been "very satisfactory" and that the United States would take Israel's views seriously when it developed its

In Mr. Kissinger's view, this than by the debate on the Middle East, and work toward a common Israeli-Middle East next week in the United Nations Security Council, Israeli sources said today. The Middle East, and work toward a common Israeli-American position. He met this morning with Defense Secretative Donald H. Rumsfeld and later with Mr. Kicsinger

By BERNARD GWERTZMAN | not take American warnings | the debate, which Israel will firmed that he had | seriously in the future. | howcott if as expected the to Mr. Allow mixed by boycott if, as expected, the Middle East. The United States pledged that it would veto ef-forts to alter the basic Middle East negotiating framework in to Mr. Allon privately that the test of wills over Angola could have profound repercussions.

Mr. Kissinger has made no secret in recent months of his gloom over the long-run developments here and abroad for the West. He believes that Congress, and to a certain extent, the press, are engaged in an excess of self-criticism border-the press, are engaged in an excess of self-criticism bordering on self-destruction.

The debate, but has left itself flexibility for dealing with moderately worded resolutions that might not be acceptable to Israel.

Although Mr. Kissinger's predictions are not shared by his critics, who see no correlation between Angola and Israel, Mr. Allon reportedly agreed with Mr. Kissinger and expressed his own concern about the refusal of Congress to support the covert aid to Americanbacked factions in Angola.

Mr. Kissinger also expressed these views to an Israeli correspondent, Nisim Kivity of the Tel Aviv afternoon paper Yediot Aharonot, before the start of Mr. Kissinger's dinner for Mr. Kissinger's dinner for Mr. Kissinger's dinner for Mr. Allon at the State Depart-del Aviv afternoon paper reuiot Aharonot, before the start of Mr. Kissinger's dinner for

Mr. Allon at the State Department last night. In a conversaticn today, Mr. Kissinger conticn today, Mr. Kissinger cont