LAWYERS TO MEET ATTICA PRISONERS

- SEP 1 7 1971

State's Permission Follows Guardsman's Testimony of Prisoner Abuse NY Times_

Special to the New York Times BUFFALO, Sept. 16-State Correction Department officials gave permission today for lawyers to interview prisoners at the Attica State Correctional Facility. They acted after a National Guard member testified in Federal Court here that he had seen prisoners being beaten and abused by prison guards and state troopers after the Attica rebellion.

The Federal Court hearing had been sought by the American Civil Liberties Union, which had petitioned Judge John T. Curtin for a permanent order to gain entry to interrogate inmates about incidents in the prison uprising.

Interviews with the prisoners are expected to begin this morning.

The guardsman, James P. Watson, a 24-year-old secondyear law stdent at the State University of Buffalo, holds the rating of a Specialist 4 in a battalion supply section.

In his testimony, which took almost an hour, he said he Continued on Page 30, Column 3 hour. He told the court that attack on the cellbock or the he had noticed that about 40 injured men had been brought out on stretchers and placed near a chain-link fence about 15 yards from him.

with prisoners between myself and them."

Mr. Watson went on to say that the prison guards had been referring to prison guards.

"If would be clueat activities the clueat activities with prisoners between myself and them."

15 yards from him.

"Many of them were twitching," he said. "I could see a lot of blood. It appeared that pushing, prodding or beatings," he said.

"I would be almost certain about 35 prisoners had been treated in this manner.

At about that time, Mr. Wather said. some were in convulsion or he said. shock. Occasionally, you could see a prisoner lift his head and try to cover his feet."

an effort, Mr. Watson contin-oner said he could not, ac-ued, the prison guards would cording to the witness, a doc-was taken away," he yell obscenities with a racial tor "looked at his back and context and shout at the prone them walked away."

The prison guards would cording to the witness, a docaded.

The walked away."

The walked awa victims, "Keep your head down or we're going to bash it in."

blacks and Puerto Ricans, whites predominantly among the police.

Requests for comment on the Watkins told the court:

Requests for comment on the Watkins told the court:

In further testimony, Mr. Watkins told the court:

Watkins told the court:

| Watkins told the court: | Seconds of Social So

"No statements will be coming "No statements will be coming from here with regard to any allegations," and a referral either to the Commissioner or the deartment's public information of them were black. They were black to speed in the groin, in the rectum, in the legs, anyting just to speed them up."

We will be recounted how he had being poked in the groin, in the rectum, in the legs, anyting just to speed them up."

We will be recounted how he had being poked in the groin, in the rectum, in the legs, anyting just to speed them up." either to the Commissioner or thing just to speed them up." going to do the prisoners any the department's public information officer, both in Attica. one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and one of the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who had who "fell upon [a prisoner] and the lawyers who ha

Continued From Page 1, Col. 2 unaware of the charges and ance. Mr. Watkins replied:

tributed ammunition to mem-said that no guardsmen had a gantlet. They were facing me bers of his group for a half been involved in either the with prisoners between myself troopers had ordered one in-When a prisoner made such mate to get up. When the pris-

'Break Him'

Albany office were met with, guarding them. Nine out of ten prisoners."

Mr. Oswald could not be reached for comment.

Douglas Dales, a spokesman gone before Judge Curtin seek-whacked him with clubs in all whacked him with clubs in all ness whether any of the prisoner, he said, was "perfectly for the state police, said he was oners were showing any resist-passive."

Continued From Page 1, Col. 2 unaware of the charges and could not comment.

had entered the prison compound with his unit and distance of the charges and could not comment.

Col. Raymond F. Joyce Jr., hands were on top of their heads. The guards would stand along what I would have called a contact. They were facing me the shoulders and heads with their clubs. He estimated that son said, he entered an adjacent building in the prison Mr. Watkins said that state yard. There, he said, he saw a prisoner being "kicked and kicked until he fell down."

we're going to bash it in."

Most of the prisoners were clubs and "I heard one trooper low about 10 seconds of sound acks, and Puerto Ricans" allegations from Mr. Oswald's naked with perhaps four guards didn't hear anything from the

"He didn't speak a word. It lasted about ten seconds," he testified.

The witness said he had seen a black man lying on a stretcher who had spoken to the guards, saying: "I know you killed Brother Herbie. You killed Brother Willie. My spirit will be lifted."

Mr. Watson said the guards had appeared incensed at the prisoner and warned him that he would be killed if he moved.

In a later question directed to Mr. Watson, the civil liberties lawyer, Mr. Doyle, inquired:

"Were you at any time directed not to say anything?"

Not Ordered to Silence

Mr. Watson said: "One sergeant told me that 'what you saw today you are not to repeat to anyone else. You could be sued."

Mr. Watson added however, that nobody had given him any official directive to keep quiet.

Mr. Watson, who is married, wears glasses and his dark hair cut short. He is of medium height and of moderately heavy build.

Clad in civilian clothes outside the court, he told what had brought about his testi-

"I felt I had to tell someone what I saw in there: If the prisoners are going to be held for their responsibilities, then so should...the guards.

After Mr. Watson had

COLLECTION: Weapons in photo released vesterday by State Police. They were described as "some of the weapons found after State Police had secured" Attica prison.

stepped down, Mr. Doyle told stepped down, Mr. Doyle told the court:

"Somebody has got to poke a hole in the virtual iron curtain that surrounds Attica."

Judge Curtin then recessed the hearing and retired to his chamber. He did not return to the bench to rule on the A.C.L.U. request because, short-A.C.L.U. request because, shortly thereafter. representatives of the State Correction Department agreed to allow lawyer to enter the prison to question the inmates.

Aryeh Neier, executive director of the A.C.L.U., said he understood that the lawyers would be admitted into the institution this morning. He said that four anterooms were being set apart forthe lawyers and inmates.

After the prison had been entered and the rebellion put down Monday, lawyers had gone into Federal Court seeking a temporary order to interpose a prisoners. Some had rogate prisoners. Some had gone to Judge Curtin's home before dawn Tuesday and he granted a temporary order.