Octors Find No Injuries at Attica Since Rebellion

By ERIC PACE Special to The New York Times

The chief doctor of the State sheriffs' deputies that crushed but he would not say just of doctors, whose members Department of Correctional the revolt. Mr. Dunbar said 32 when the job would be com-were not named, had examined Services said today that an in-inmates were still in the prison pleted. dependent team of nine doctors hospital and 17 in a nearby had examined all of the more civilian hospital. than 1,400 inmates of the At- Reporters were not permitted through before Christmas but care of inmates at the facility tica Correctional Facility today to interview inmates today, ex- we won't be through with re-following last week's disturband that they had found no cept for one man who was un-pairs and remodeling by then." ance was good." wounds or bruises inflicted loading oranges from a truck since the inmates' revolt was inside the prison walls. Asked crushed a week ago.

The medical findings were said listlessly: "I guess so." made public as newsmen took a 90-minute tour of the maxi-lion still littered parts of the mum-security prison. Deputy prison today. The visitors were Correction Commissioner Wal-shown the cellblock D courtter Dunbar, who led the tour, yard, where most of the insaid it was planned to reduce mates had gathered during the the prison population to 1,250 revolt. It was still strewn with -a thousand fewer than before scores of Mattresses, tables, the five-day revolt-and to sta-shoes, boards and other debris tion guards in new emplace-from the rebellion. Flies hovments overlooking outdoor ered over the 90-by-90-yard ing, as the medical report was the last week"—that is, since courtyards, where much of the field. rebel activity took place.

Ten hostages and 30 inmates staff members and selected in the State Department of Cordied in the uprising and the mates were well along in the rectional Services. ATTICA, N. Y., Sept. 21- assault by state troopers and job of cleaning up the prison, Dr. Bradley said the team

if things were quiet now, he

The refuse left by the rebel-

Mr. Dunbar said that prison director of medical services of Continued on Page 51, Column 2

The visitors were shown onion sacks filled with what mates have charged that the were said to be prisoners' be authorities made insufficient longings, which had been plans for medical care of the sorted out from the debris in convicts before they retook the the cellblocks. Mr. Dunbar, a prison by force last week, burly, solemn man, "You'll have to realize the in-ten statement, continued: "The mates were in charge of this results of their medical inven-[cleaning-up process] and how tory of each inmate revealed much they looted we don't that none of the wounds and/ know."

the inmates today and had re-"We're making good prog-ported "that, in their profesress," he said. "We'll be sional opinion, the medical Lawyers for some of the insaid: Dr. Bradley, reading a writor bruises" that the doctors Mr. Dunbar stood by, smil-had seen "had occurred within given by Dr. James D. Bradley, the day the state ended the uprising.

Inmates' lawyers have indicated that prisoners were "Rockefeller's gestapo." frightened of reprisals and continued beatings.

Dr. Bradley read the state-Dr. Bradley read the state-ment in the presence of the copies of the document at a five members of the Goldman press conference outide the Committee-one of the inquiring groups set up to investigate had met with Blyden in the ably tensed up, according to an "Well, every American is enthe recent events at Attica— prison yesterday and that Bly- art instructor at the prison, titled to show the flag. But and the committee members den had told him to make pub- John Calhoun. Immediately that's not why they're wearing said they had watched the doc-lic an oral message saying that tors at work and approved of the Attica crisis could have the way the check was carried been resolved by a few more

Upstate Doctors Represented

Dr. Bradley said the medical team consisted of four members of the Buffalo chapter of the National Medical Association, a mainly black medical York Correction facility in this group, and other upstate doc-Catskill Mountain community tors, including two who spoke today described the prison as

Dr. Bradley did not mention week's uprising at Attica. the early reports that hostages' throats had been slashed during M. Blow, attributed the tension ures, in the proper use of fire-memorial to Attica," about 150 the revolt, but Mr. Dunbar, who to the fact that all 951 inmates arms and in self-protection." asked about the reports, said: come from New York City, asked about the reports, said: come from New York City, fellow guards have signed a supper. But the superintendent "I actually saw one or two hossome of them transferred fol-"declaration of determination," says "that was the extent of tages come out with their lowing the Tombs riots, and "declaration of determination," says "that was the extent of throtts cut. I didn't know that they have had unlimited which demands that if guards our protest." whether they were alive or access to news reports of the are seized and held hostage by don't recall." Then, more loud-inmates, many with newspa-after the police assault in which said yesterday that he was conly, he observed: "I think the of-pers, crowded around the Gar-40 people—30 inmates and nine tinuing to meet with the four ficial pathologists, property of the person of the pe servers who dealt with the end to "the garbage they sell the yard of the prison. As the investigate the events at Attica. rebels during the revolt have in the commissary." They said legislator spoke, a softball from Judge Fuld said he hoped contended that Mr. Dunbar said they wanted more than the one a nearby game sailed over his that his panel would be in a earlier that men had been caspair of underwear and single head. Several guards reacted position today to begin to call trated. The pathologists who pair of socks they get each and trotted towards him, then individuals agreed upon as proshave studied the bodies have week, as well as freer use of stopped as the ball was recovpective the mails and the right to get ered and thrown back. The in-mittee. of castration were found.

A civil liberties lawyer said lived to them. today that a leader of the Their demands virtually revolt, Herbert X. Blyden, had echoed the demands made by given him a brief communique the Atica inmates.

Continued From Page 1, Col. 7 mates. It called Attica a "con-the observer committee that derogatory book that urges inmates killed by what it called major prisons of the state be-ther paper. They get Fortune."

> filiated with the American Civil Attica rebellion in particular ty prison as "terribly tense." prison walls. He said that he hours of negotiations.

Tension in Catskill Prison

Special to The New York Times

NAPANOCH, N. Y., Sept. 21 -Guards at the Eastern New 'tense" in the wake of last tendent and the State Depart-prison rebellion.

ficial pathologists' reports are den City Republican, clamoring of 10 hostages—were killed. going to speak for themselves." loudly for a change in their The inmates here crowd Members of the team of ob- diets, for more food and for an around Senator Dunne in the form a citizens' committee to literature of their choice de-mates laughed at the guards' signed by more than 30 in- Senator Dunne, a member of fore his Senate committee be- Mr. Calhoun disagrees. He Union, distributed and prison conditions in gen-continued, "It was provocative, thinking." and the prisoners knew it."

union here, admits to tension 1970, but it was quickly put between guards and inmates. down, according to Superinten-He was asked that the superin-dent Blow, without injuries to reek's uprising at Attica.

The superintendent, Maurice instructions "in riot proceed-fused to eat breakfast "as a a process of the superintendent, maurice in the process of the superintendent, may be superintendent.

He and more than 200 of his inmates, the Correction Depart-Asked whether anyone on his staff had said that anyone had been castrated during the revolt, Mr. Dunbar murmured: "I toured the prison today. The only trecal!" Then more lovel to the state of the Senator John R. Dunne, ment immediately send in forces to release them. The declaration is similar to one signed in Attica several days don't recal!" Then more lovel in the police assemble in which said vesterday that he was constituted in the police assemble in which said vesterday that he was constituted in the police assemble in which said vesterday that he was constituted in the police assemble in the police assemble nervousness.

Small Minority Baimed

Superintendent Blow to relaxation; that want to come back here to priced at $15 and $10. finish their sentences if they finish their sentences if they The society said that indiviolate parole," and that "our viduals who wished only to

He said that only a small ciety-Atica Fund, 1545 Broad-minority—"the Young Lords, way, New York, N. Y. 10036. the Black Panthers, the Mus-lims, the 5 Per Centers" and more than 40 Puerto Rican or-up the other prisoners.

"They say they haven't Spanish newspapers here," the superintendent went on.

"Of West They are the superintendent went on."

"Of The Follows and Spanish speak ing prisoners at Attica.

At a press conference at the Puerto Rican Community Dependent went on."

"Of The Follows are the speak of the speak are the puerto."

"The Follows are the speak of the spe cenration camp" and declared tried to negotiate an end to the them to murder white people. solidarity with the families of Attica uprising, is touring the I haven't seen the Black Pan-

Herman Schwartz, who is af- gins an investigation into the sees things in this Ulster Coun-

"You see correctional officers walking around with their The guards here have notice-metal American flags," he says. John Calhoun. Immediately that's not why they're wearing after the Attica revolt, he said, it. It's like every American is "they took to walking in pairs." entitled to a sheet, but when "They went into the guard he slits it and puts it over his towers in pairs," Mr. Calhoun head, then I know what he's

This medium-security prison Charles Krom, president of was the scene of a nine-hour the correctional officers' local yard insurrection in August of either guards or inmates.

refused the noon meal and "considerably less" skipped

Inquiry Plans Pressed

other judges appointed by Gov-The inmates here crowded ernor Rockefeller last week to pective members of the com-

In another development, the Fortune Society, an organization that assists former conwas victs, annouced that a fund-raising benefit to help defray asked why there was prisoner the burial costs of slain Attica unrest, since he contends that inmaes would be held at 5:15 conditions here are conducive P.M. Friday at Town Hall, 123 "people West 43d Street. Tickets are average prisoner gains pounds while he's here." eight contribute could send their donations to the Fortune Sodonations to the Fortune So-others he termed "just agita-ganizations announced plans tors"—continually tried to stir yesterday to aid Spanish-speak-course, we do. We get The 50th Street, Eric Arroyo, chair-Amsterdam News and some of man of the volunteer committhose other papers. Only a cou-tee, estimated that about 20 per ple of books we don't allow—cent of the Attica inmates were Soledad Brother' and another Spanish-speaking.