NYTimes 26

BAIL IS REQUESTED BY ANGELA DAVIS

She Says State's Refusal Is More Political Than Legal

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1 (UPI)—Angela Davis, appearing thin after 15 months in jail, appealed personally to a Federal judge today to free her on bail during her forthcoming trial on murder charges.

Her 10-minute argument, to which she was entitled as her own co-cojnsel, was supported by a law professor at Stanford University who told United States District Judge William Sweigert that the charge agains Miss Davis was "the flimsiest evident or the presumption Marin County Courthouse in case-let alone capital case the refusal of the state to grant her bail while she awaits trial the trial scheduled in San Jose. "would hold without bail any-Jan. 31 on charges in the 1970." I ask the court to enforce body, without regard to age, Marin County Courthouse shoot the Constitution and release sex or anything else.'

Her confinement "severely erodes my presumption of innocence," she said.

Liberties Union, which is supparing her defense, porting Miss Davis on the bail The state charg issue, argued that a California Davis bought the guns used by law denying bail to capital defour kidnapers who abducted a fendants where "the proof is judge from the bench at the

Miss Davis told the judge that from Palo Alto, 35 miles away, he refusal of the state to grant where she is being held for on which she was being held for "would held without head any ings was "more a political ges-ture than a legal gesture." Miss Davis on bail," Professor As for hampering her Amsterdam said. He said that defense, Mr. Harris said, Miss California Superior Court Judge Davis is being given better Richard Arnason, had been treatment in jail than any other "arbitrary" in deciding that inmate. She has "the only pri-Albert W. Harris, the state "proof is evident or the pre-vate office in a county jail in prosecutor, said the 27-year-old sumption great," in Miss Davis's California," he told Judge black militant was being treated case, and the state law in any Sweigert. "in the same manner and under event has the effect of ex-the same law as every other changing bail for a "class" of capital case in California." capital case in California."

Prof. Anthony Amsterdam, that being held in jail was representing the American Civil hampering Miss Davis in pre-

The state charges that Miss great" villates the United States

San Rafael, Aug. 7, 1970, and shot him to death outside the Judge Sweigert took the matter under advisement and said he would rule "shortly."

The hearing was conducted building. Three of the kidnapting the Federal Curt Building ers were killed by police gunhere. Miss Davis was brought fire