Lawyer Defends Rockefeller Against Testifying on Attica

By MICHAEL T. KAUFMAN 1 5 1975 NYTimes Special to The New York Times

BUFFALO, March 14-A law-or immunity. Equally not at yer representing Nelson A. issue is the record of the for-Rockefeller argued here today mer Governor; whether he is that the Vice President should afraid to appear in public. Wha not be compelled to testify in is at issue before your hono a trial of two men charged is whether the rules that apply with murdering an Attica prison guard because all Mr. Rockefeller knows of the 1971 incident is "hearsay" that would he hearsay" that would he hearsay that would he hearsay that would he hearsay that would he hearsay that would he hears a fine from the heart of the

The two defendants, John rankest of hearsay. Hill and Charles Joseph Pernaslice, have been charged with mation received by a chief exbeating William QQuinn, a corection officer who died as his duty should be exempt from a result of injuries he suffered the hearsay rule, which pre-at the beginning of a rebellion at the prison. Their lawyers cidents allegedly seen by othhave maintained that Mr. Rock-ers. efeller, who was Governor at the time, should come here two-hour debate it became apto explain his comments last parent that Mr. Jackson and November before the Senate the prosecution were arguing Judiciary Committee when he that Mr. Rockefeller should be said that Officer QQuinn died treated like everyone else and the press at the time of the everyone else and not be exuprising, but it was discredited cused from testifying by virtue as a "manifestly false rumor" by a state commission investi

One motive for the defense's strongly that it is totally excul- ney for Mr. Pernasilice.

Kunstler sought to diminish a single gold ear ring, launched any possible claim by Mr. Jack-into an attack on m Mr. Rocke-Jackson't turn, no such claim nor Rockefeller.

Yale college classmate of Mr throughout the trial, cut off Kunstler's and a New York discussion about events that lawyer, opened his argument went beyond Mr. Quinn's death. by saying: "What is not at He reserved decision on the issue is any claim of privilege motion.

cident is "hearsay" that would be inadmissable as testimony.

The lawyer, William E. Jackson, urged that a defense motion seeking a subpoena for the Vice President is denied by State; Supreme Court Justice Gilbert H. King, who is presiding at the trial, which is now in its third week.

Mr. Jackson then proceeded to the heart of his contention. "He is not only not a material witness, he is not a witness at all. Mr. Rockefeller was simply not there. He has no personal knowledge of what occurred. The information he does have is based on statements made by others." He added that such information was "the Mr. Jackson then proceeded that such information was "the after having been beaten and not be allowed to give hearsay The story of the window was arguing that the Vice President had been reported in ident should be treated like testimony, while Mr. Kunstler insistence on Mr. Rockefeller's Nonetheless, as today's ee-appearance became apparent bate began, William M. Kun-when Joseph Heath, a defense stler, Mr. Hill's lawyer, insisted lawyer, joined with Mr. Kunthat Mr. Rockefeller's testimo-stler. Mr. Heath, a 28-year-old ny about the window and what lawyer admitted to the bar he knew tf it were essential only last Friday; was filling "The defense feels very in for Ramsey Clark, as attorpatory, and material," Mr. Kun- Mr. Clark, a former United stler said of the Vice Pres-State Attorney General, could ident's proposed testimony not be in court today because "We are not dealing with a he attended the unveiling of functionary or subordinate, but a portrait of Robert F. Kennedy with a man who was intimately at the Justice Department in involved with the events at Washington. His stand-in Mr. Heath, whose blond hair was In his opening remarks, Mr. in a pony tail and who wore son of executive privilege for feller's role in regard to Attica. Mr. Rockefeller. He cited the Part of the defense he said. recent United States Supreme is an allegation of "fabrication Court decision requiring former and cover-up" by the state President Richard M. Nixon to "We feel that the indictments provide tapes under subpoena in this case and other Attice But when it came to be Mr. cases are whitewash of Gover-

Justice King interrupted the In fact Mr. Jackson, a 1941 young lawyer and, as he has