AIDS DEFENDANTS

Two Accused as Slayers of Guard in Uprising

By MICHAEL T. KAUFMAN 1971. Special to The New York Times

Quinn as convicts overran the E. Quinn. Attica State Correctional Facility on Sept. 9, 1971.

the man landed a blow on the forehead of a fallen guard with a 2-by-4 piece of lunber. He specifically said he could not identify John Hill and Charles Joseph Pernasalice, the two men who are defendants mates during the uprising in the trial here in Mr. Quinn's Mr. Cratsley said he did Square," a section of the prison, and seen 15 or 20 inmates breakfast. herding "three of four guards" into a corner.

Guards Forced Down

"The inmates told them to lawyer for Mr. Hill.

"They hit them with their hands," the witness said.

of the guards lay close to the for attempted rape, and had center of the "Times Square" not, in fact, raped a girl as vestibule. "I'm not for sure she was on her way to school but I think it was Quinn," "You mean, Barbara?" asked Several witnesses said they had he said.

had struck the guard and that He readily conceded that he but none was as specific as

Louis Aidala, the prosecutor, slow learners." the witness was asked how he He invited the prosecutor to mony given here earlier indicat-

Guard Who Lied About Attica May Be Disciplined by the State

By ROBERT HANLEY

Ex-Inmate Unable to identify

The State Correctional Serv-will investigate Mr. Tolbert's Department yesterday be-fabrication and recommend gan considering possible disci-whatever "actions that are necthe Attica revolt in September, partment in October, 1970.

BUFFALO, March 20—A forment were described as being bert's lie nearly two years ago mer Attica inmate, who was released on parole 10 dyas ago, til the guard, Alton Tolbert ument recanting the story, testified today he had seen a black inmate strike a prison and it wednesday in Buffalo at the trial of two former had not provided that material guard he believed to have been attication and ordered him to sign a doction when the story admitted it wednesday in Buffalo at the trial of two former had not provided that material guard he believed to have been attication as accused of slave to Correction Department officients. guard he believed to have been Attica inmates accused of slay- to Correction Department offi-Correction Officer William E. ing Correction Officer William cials in Albany.

The witness, testifying for "completely shocked" by news not release their records on Mr. the defense, said he could not accounts of Mr. Tolbert's testifying the assailant, but he had lied to state the matter was part of the endease their records on Mr. described in graphic detail how troppers in late 1971 when he tire investigation of the upris-plinary action against a prison essary and appropriate." He did guard who has testified that he not rule out eventual disciplinfalsely accused an inmate of ary action against the 33-year-striking a guard at the start of old guard, who joined the dehTe prosecution in the Attica Top officials of the depart-trial, which uncovered Mr. Tol-

Charles Bradley, a member of Gerald Houlihan, a spokes-man, said the department was colleagues felt that they could hit Mr. Quinn with a shovel.

The department's labor relaover the records," Mr. Bradley time but said he was sure it indictments so I told them I The parolee, Charles Raymond Cratsley, told how he had walked into "Times" was the same man who had didn't have anything to say."

Was the same man who had didn't have anything to say."

Was the same man who had didn't have anything to say."

Begin to the was sure it indicating the same man who had didn't have anything to say."

Square" earlier that morning as investigators from the McKay > guard assigned to that post at perspective. that time.

lie down, but they didn't under-tion, the witness, who has nine Koren, a Buffalo lawyer who stand English too good, so they years still to serve on parole, in the last three and a half persuaded them to lie down," clumg to the details of his story, the 29-year-old witness said: at times smiling in what ap hundred immates at Attica, "Years did the persuaded to be enjoyment at the "How did they do that?" peared to be enjoyment at the which is 30 miles from here. asked William M. Kunstler, the prosecutor's efforts to discredit From the defense's point of him.

Mr. Aidala asked the witness introduced several new factors if he had not been sentenced into the trial, now 19 days Mr. Cratsley said that one to a term of up to 15 years old. None of the prosecution's blood was flowing from the has been under psychiatric Mr. Cratsley.

officer's forehead. "I said, treatment for the last six year 'Christ sakes, don't kill him,' in prison and that for the and the man stopped."

in prison and that for the the prosecution must show that eight years he had gone to the guard's death resulted didid the man stopped." eight years he had gone to the guard's death resulted di-Under cross examination by school he was in classes "for rectly from blows struck by to discuss his observations with murder. The witness said he had never known them in pri> the inmate passed to and from Commission, the state panel appointed to examine the pri-Mr. Quinn was in fact the son rebellion from a historical

Mr. Cratsley and his testimo-During the cross examina ny were discovered by Edward

From the defense's point of view Mr. Cratsley's testimony the witness, who immediately seen inmates other than the added that an inmate added, "Yes."

the defendants. Medical testiknew the guard in question was examine his medical records, led that the guard had die Mr. Quinn, the only officer to Mr. Cratsley, who comes from of head injuries resulting from have died at the hands of in-Corning, N.Y., said he refused blows with blunt objects.