Notes on People (byline, Albin Krebs)

Among hundreds of thousands who have received applications to join and support the Friends of the F.B.I., an organization dedicated to the proposition that the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and its director, J. Edgar Hoover, are exemplary institutions, is the Rev. Daniel Berrigan. Father Berrigan received his application at his current residence, the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Conn. He filled it out, putting in his prison number, and assured the Friends that indeed he would like to join. But he noted that he wasn't in a position at the moment to send a contribution.
