questions and answers

Viboard the plane: Q. Mf. President, did you visce the story on the C.I.A. in

A. I read it there hurriedly. A. I read it there nurriculy. I got a call on the plane this morning from Bill Colby re-assuring me that nothing comparable to what was stated in the article was going on over there, and I told him that under no circumstances would I tolerate any such activities under this

Q. Are they allowed to have any internal intelligence activities?

A. They have a very spe--cific charter and they should live up to the charter.

Q. Did you learn about this activity before it appeared in The New York Times? A. I had some partial in-

Q. Have you done anything about it? A. Well, at that time I indicated what I said here, that this Administration would not tolerate it and I was assured it did not exist.

The questioning then turned intelligence to another subject and the C.I.A. matter was not brought Following is a transcript of brief appearance before re-
