NYTimes

JAN 6 1975

Soviet, Citing C.I.A. Surveillance Reports, Charges generally reported the has

Special to The New York Timeshas generally reported the scandal with a minimum of munist party newspaper Pravda today cited the domestic surveillance scandal involving the Central Intelligence Agency in the United States in an effort to show Soviet readers that the United States was guilty of persecuting dissidents of its own.
"This the much hailed bourgeois democracy in pravia cummentary in geois democracy in age," asserted Tomas Kolesni, chenko, a senior editor of Pravda, in the newspaper's up to now, the Soviet press against American citizens.has generally reported the scandal with a minimum of implied that the United States and of to enjoy a free hand on mat-to enjoy a free hand on utside that the Kremlin, in capitalizing on the latest American scandal, was willing to put up with any up to now, the Soviet press against American citizens.In so doing, Pravda clearly implied that the United States or the United States scandal with a minimum of implied that the Kremlin, in capitalizing on the latest American citizens.In so doing, Pravda clearly implied that the United States to enjoy a free hand on mat-tinctly sharpened its running doms."tic spying activities, the official press agency Tass asserted to-secure that the Kremlin, in capitalizing on the latest American scandal,
was willing to put up with any comparisons at home as it attacked the C.I.A. for snooping
Up to now, the Soviet press against American citizens.In so doing, Pravda clearly
implied that the United States to so on."tic spying activities, the official press agency Tass
tacked the C.I.A. for snooping
to put up with any
to put up with any
to put up with any
to now, the Soviet press against American citizens.In so doing, Pravda clearly the Matter Soviet Union to mat

19

C

In so doing, Pravda clearly tic spying activties, the official

That the U.S. Persecutes Its Dissidents

the commentary said, "the au-thors of these inventions of course consider that American society is the height of demo-society is the height of demosociety is the height of demo-cracy." "However, the develations of the United States appear one after another," 'Pravda con-tended. "This time, the talk is about exposure of the spying activities of the C.I.A. even within America itself." In attacking one of the fa-vorite scapegoats of the Soviet press, Pravda said that the con-trol Intelligence Agency had been "compiling dossiers on tens of thousands of people ir