House Democrats Endorse Own Study on Intelligence

NYTimes

By JAMES M. NAUGHTON
Special to The Name of the Name o

Democratic study group un-a days ago by Speaker Carl L. intelligence apparatus. Albert, virtually assured that The six other Democrats on the House would follow the Senate in consolidating mush-rooming intelligence inquiries the study panel quickly approved Mr. Nedzi's motion to recommend a select committee under one new committee.

Agency, the Federal Bureau of United States. Investigation and more than a dozen other Federal agencies had acted illegally or improperly in discharging their surveillance functions.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29-A The House study group urged comparable investigation animously recommended today after Representative Lucien N. that the House create a bipar-Nedzi, Democrat of Michigan, isan select committee to in-unexpectedly agreed that his restigate the activities of Armed Services Subcommittee Government intelligence on Intelligence, which has priagencies.

The proposal, made by seven the C.I.A., was too narrowly Democratic representatives apfocused to undertake a broad pointed to the study group two review of the entire Federa.

of seven Democrats and three The Senate voted, 82 to 4, Republicans to "conduct an inon Monday to create an 11-quiry into the organization, op-member panel to determine eration and oversight of the whether the Central Intelligence intelligence community of the

Mr. Nedzi said in an interview that, although he had

Continued on Page 46, Column 6

"only sensible way" to explore questions about the conduct of

Continued From Page 1, Col. 3 by Mr. Nedzi't decision to yield other publications of allegedly jurisdiction. Mr. Harrington had improper survillance activities been urging a select committee by the C.I.A. and the F.B.I. in since Congress convened two recent years. weeks ago and he had threatened to seek a caucus vote to create the panel if ciable —secrecy in an open society," Mr. Nedzi said.

'Tremendous Pressure'

Mr. Harrington said that he various other information gathering agencies.

when the study group met to-various other information gathering agencies.

Caucus Must Vote

The proposal requires endorsment by the House Democratic Steering and Policy Committee and the caucus of all 290 House Democrats before the full House can vote to establish the select committee and fund its investigation. But Mr. Nedzi's embrace of the approach appeared to remove the last significant hurdle to a centralized House inquiry.

The House Republican leader, Representative John J. Rhodes of Arizona, told reporters this morning that he favored the establishment of a select committee. He said it would avoid "running the risk" of a fragmented investigation by half a dozen House panels, each of which has limited jurisdiction over some of the various inteligence agencies.

The House panels, each of which has limited jurisdiction over some of the various inteligence agencies.

The study group met to day. The other members, drawn from the Bouse Democratic leadership and rank and file, when the study group met to the House Democratic leadership and rank and file, when the Study group met to the House Perposal and rank and file, were Representatives Robert N. Giaimo of Connecticut, John J. McFall and John E. Moss of California, Jonathan B. Bingham of the Bronx and Mendel J. Datorous were bad."

Mr. Gaiimo, the chairman of the study panel, said that he had been reluctant to go along with Mr. Harrington because "I don't think the answer to every problem is to create a new committee." But Mr. Giaimo said that there was "tremendous perssure" in the party and mandate to proPose methods for improving Congressional Supervision of the intelligence activities."

The House Papublicans, "to use a bunch of well-trained detectives available to them." He added that he had been reluctant to go along with Mr. Harrington because "I don't think the answer to every problem is to create a new committee. The sum of the study panel, said that he had been reluctant to go along with Mr. Nedzi's resolution called for a report by the select committee. The full that the pr ciable —secrecy in an open society," Mr. Nedzi said.

Mr. McFall said in an interview that there had probably been a "temptation" for various recent Presidents, Democrats or Penulbicans.