

The Names in CIA Files: Some Belong, Some Don't

by Harry Rositzke [who retired from the CIA in 1970 after 27 years with the agency and its predecessors, and who initiated its liaison with the FBI on Soviet espionage matters; author of "The U.S.S.R. Today" and "Left On!"] (Article on the demarcation line between responsibilities ~~between~~ of the CIA and FBI.)