SFChronicle

C/A (b)

Report on House Hearings FEB 2 2 1975

ritic Says CIA 'Missteps' Not Significan nothing earthshattering or citizens' rights but "was mestic spying violated yesterday that its past dostronger congressional con-trol over the CIA concluded A leading advocate of men after a closed-door defense appropriations subbriefing by CIA Director made the comment to news-Giaimo (Dem - Conn.), William Colby for the House (Dem.-Idaho), meanwhile, said that Colby is right in deploring the "almost hys-Senator Frank Church excitement" > agency's activities. rounding reports of the his probe. Senate committee looking into CIA activities, said he fears an over excited public climate might hamper Church, who heads the Representative Robert mitted in public testimony tions of rights?" The conmen misinformation. Helms of giving congressthat "There have been violamer CIA Director Richard gressman also accused for-Giaimo said Colby has ada warning to a free people to always be on their guard said. "But it should serve as earthshattering or significant has taken place," Giaimo "Fortunately nothing need for stronger control missteps" also show the Giaimo said what Colby has called the CIA's "few Congress. by the administration and over intelligence agencies war dissident groups, and as of CIA domestic spying, ininspired move for governa result of the Watergatement reform. cluding infiltration of antia result of press disclosures establishing such control as been accomplished" toward He said "a great deal has

An example, Giaimo said, was the fact that Colby for against any type of secret the first time delivered his agencies." top secret briefing on CIA ing to the full 12-member defense appropriations sublect group of senior memcommittee rather than a seoperations yesterday mornbers.

"We're now going to be able to question them, to object to areas of their budget," he said.

questions on the content of bers refused to answer any Colby's briefing. Giaimo and other mem-whether CIA covert operasubcommittees, he said, is Senate select intelligence taken up by the House and A major area still to be tions abroad are really need-a free nation morally insaid. "Are they worthwhile? with our intelligence operaactivities that have been alvolve itself in the types of Should the United States as tions in places like Chile?" leged to have taken place "Are they fruitful?" he and Senate investigations the briefing that the House may result in some reorganization of CIA activities. Colby acknowledged after

"There might be some changes," he said, "that is up to the legislative commit

Associated Press