Colby Oral Fill-In to Ford On Assassination Reported

N/Times

The Washington Star

William E. Colby, Director of with Mr. Ford and a Central Intelligence, reported group of other officials at the orally to President Ford about White House on Jan. 3 to reseveral plans for assassinating view the document, he disforeigners in which the agency closed to the President informahad been involved, rather than tion about what were described including the information in his as several unsuccessful assaswritten report to the President, sination attempts that had been informed sources said today.

the sources as being an "oral activities of the Central Intel-ligence Agency. Two separate official sources have confirmed were described as several asthat the written report to Mr. sassination plans, and appar-Ford, sent to him at Vail, Colo., ently some attempts, overseas in late December by Mr. Colby via Secretary of State Kissinger, made no mention of assas-

WASHINGTON, March 4 - But when Mr. Colby met The report was described by the early nineteen sixties.

But when Mr. Colby met with addendum" to the 50-page re- Mr. Ford and a small group of port Mr. Colby submitted to other officials at the White Mr. Ford about illegal domestic House Jan. 3 to review the doc-ther the agency had merely learned of the plans without being directly involved.

The names of the targets, Continued on Page 14, Column 1

Admissions Reported

Mr. Colby's written report is illegal. was said to contain damning admissions about other illegal C.I.A. activities. Those who have seen all or part of the report, and a separate summary of it, say that it admits the following:

This is the first disclosure of Investigation.
that the C.I.A. assigned agents Mr. Colby has publicly ack-

Continued From Page 1, Col. 6
the dates of the reported attempts and the degree of C.I.A. involvement could not be learned. In confirming the oral discussion of the assassination matter, the officials emphasized that either the plans had not been carried out or that the attempts had not succeeded.

The Star's sources insisted that no one had been killed, which was what Mr. Colby is said to have reported orally to the President.

White House and C.I.A. white House and C.I.A. white House and cases unanswered the question of whether the agency had planned assassinations in the past, whether its agents had merely discussed such killings without going further or whether the agency had merely discussed such killings without going further or whether the agency had merely discussed such killings without going further or whether the agency had merely discussed to American citizens, according to Mr. Colby in the White House.

To conduct surveillance of reported the United States. Persons close to the United States of the United States. Persons close to the United States as part of a counterintelligence program that led to the accumulation of files on 10,000 United States citizens. He also has acknowledged that 2 C.I.A. that 21 telephone taps were used against United States residents between 1951 and 1965. Most of this surveillance was directed against persons connected with the C.I.A. Three domestic break-ins were conducted, according to Mr. Colby's testimony, in connection without authorization. No details were given in his testimony, in connection without authorization. No details were given in his testimony, but sources close inflict and the United States. Persons close to the united States residents between 1951 and 1965. Most of this surveillance was directed against persons connected with the C.I.A. Three domestic break-ins were connected

The program of opening mail addressed to American citizens, one intelligence official admitted, has been a major source of concern to the agency, because such mail interception

Not Previously Disclosed

While the presence of C.I.A. agents in Miami has long been an open secret, Mr. Colby's acknowledgement of the agency's surveillance role in the Cuban colony had not previous-

GC.I.A. surveillance of United States newsmen.

Tillegal use of mail covers on a large scale to intercept letters to United States citizens.

The C.I.A.'s legislative charter, executed in 1947, prohibits any domestic operations by the agency. The law, never changed, assigned C.I.A. exclusively to foreign operations. All domestic counterintel ligence responsibility was assigned. A widespread and almost All domestic counterintel-routine surveillance of Cuban refugees in Miami.