dered a two-month extension future domestic wrongdoing by of the Rockefeller Commission's the agency. investigation of alieged domes-tic wrongdoing by the Central Intelligence Agency, Vice Presi-dent Rockefeller announced Monday. The commission's new dead-lime of June 6 "is one that will be met," said Mr. Rockefeller, The executive order, signed chairman of the panel. The executive order, signed deadline of April 4. It also said the panel's mandate to investi-gate only domestic wrongdoing statements by Mr. Rockefeller and other officials made it clear that the extension was at least or the large of the agency of the agency of the security of the agency of the agency of the agency resident of Rutgers University, said the scholars had agreed for the need for a public code of ethics governing intelligence gathering. that the extension was at least partly linked to allegations of C.J.A. involvement in foreign assassination plots.

The eight-member panel was stablished by Mr. Ford in January in response to allega-tions that the C.I.A. had con-ducted a massive illegal domes. tic spy operation against Viet-

в

2-MONTH EXTENSION WASHINGTON, March (AP)—President Ford has orr dered a two-month extension's the Rockefeller Commission's the agency.

114/-------