2 Trujillo Death Plotters Deny CIA Involved

Santo Domingo
Dominican Republic

Both survivors of the assassination plot against General Leonides Trujillo denied yesterday that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency or any other foreign organization was involved.

General Antonio Imbert Barrera and Luis Amiama Tioi who are regarded as National heroes for their role in the dictator's slaying, the plot and its implementation were entirely Dominican.

Trujillo, who ruled this Caribbean republic for 31 years, was shot from ambush May 30, 1961.
