

House Unit Asking Ford for Release Of 2 C.I.A. Reports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19 (AP) —The House Intelligence Committee voted today to seek President Ford's approval to release public reports on two covert Central Intelligence Agency operations.

The operations reportedly are United States aid to Angola and what sources say was C.I.A. activity in Italian elections.

A proposal to seek disclosure as well of a report detailing United States aid to Kurdish rebels in Iraq several years ago was rejected on a 6-6 tie vote, one source said.

Under a news blackout imposed after the substance of the reports was disclosed in the press, members, including Chairman Otis G. Pike, Democrat of New York, refused to say how the committee had voted.

However, to comply with House rules requiring public announcement of all roll-call votes, the committee later announced it had taken votes of 6 to 6, 8 to 4 and 7 to 5, but refused to say on what

REMEMBER THE NEEDIEST!