

ST Examiner
[] filed CIA (a) w/s

CIA (D)
~~W/E~~

31 Oct 76

Head of IRS accused of hampering tax probe

by Larry Kramer

The head of the Internal Revenue Service [Donald Alexander] and other administration officials are hampering an IRS-Justice Department investigation into possible tax fraud by several prominent and wealthy Americans, according to the head of a congressional watch dog committee [Charles Vanik, head of the House Ways and Means oversight subcommittee].

....

(Story includes summary of various incidents in connection with Project Haven.)

(Other refs, see Chronology entry 7 Nov 75, headed Nixon, Bahamian Bank [Nixon's name seen on computer printout, Castle Bank and Trust Co., Ltd., Nassau].)