CONGRESSIONAL 'RIGHT'

Probe Berets Case Order,

By RICK MERRON

"NHA TRANG, Vietnam (AP)-Col. Robert B. Rheault's successor as commander of the Green Berets in Vietnam said today he would not object to a congressional investigation of the case against Rheault and seven other Special Forces men accused with him of murdering a Vietnamese man.

"Congress has a right to know what we do-we work for Congress," said Col. Alexander Lemberes, 43.

Ascivilian attorney for one of A civilian attorney for one of the eight accused men, Maj. were arrested. They are being held in the Long Binh stockade, held in the Long Binh stockade, north of Saigon, while the Army day for a congressional investigation of the mysterious case. He charged that Middleton was being "sacrificed" for political reasons and implied that the Army was covering up for the army was covering up for the to have been exposed as a dou-

Central Intelligence Agency.

LEMBERES, of Sparks, Nev., took command of the 5th Special Forces Group in June when Rheault, six other Green Beret officers, and a sergeant were arrested. They are being to have been exposed as a double agent working for the Americans and the Communits. Informed military sources said yesterday his killing was an assigned "military mission," and Middleton's civilian attorney, George W. Gregory of Cheraw, S.C., said "the CIA was very gravely involved."

Lemberes said in an interto have been exposed as a dou-

Lemberes said in an interview he could not understand the manner in which U.S. Army authorities had handled the case. Although he conceded that "they have the facts and figures," and he he does ot.

Meanwhile, Gregory awaited a decision on his petition for the immediate release from custody of Middleton. The attorney contends the detention of the men while the Army makes up its mind whether to try them is illegal.

U.S. OFFICIALS in Saigon familiar with the case said they felt Gregory "tended to exag-gerate" in his charges against gerate" in his charges against the military's conduct of the case. One of these sources denied that the CIA was involved.

"He can say almost anything he wants to with impunitive The American in the control of the case of ty. The Army is in a predica-ment in the case because of all the publicity, and it wouldn't touch him no matter what he says."