Bueblo

THE NEW YORK TIMES, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1969

Pueblo Crewman Says Destruction of Papers

secret papers in the intelligence quarter of the ship lasted 10 to 15 minutes, a communica-tions technician has told the Navy court of inquiry here. The crewman, Chief Com-munications Technician*James R. Kell, also testified that he never heard an order to burn documents from Lieut. Stephen R. Harris, the chief intelligence officer on the Pueblo, who was in charge of top secret material. Technician Kell "observed dur-ing the incident that Lieutenant Harris appeared nervous, as' they all were, but not confused. R. Kell, also testified that he never heard an order to burn documents from Lieut. Stephen R. Harris, the chief intelligence officer on the Pueblo, who was in charge of top secret material. Technician Kell "observed dur-ing the incident that Lieutenant Had More Than Hour

Asked by the court for his day, both Technician Kell and Bottomnents from Lieut. Stephen R. Harris, the chief intelligence, officer on the Pueblo, who was in charge of top secret material. Technician Kell sati that he burning and souttling papers in the research, or intelligence, area of the Pueblo.

Technician Kell testified yes-tarea of the inquiry into session of the inquiry into session of the inquiry into telligence ship on Jan. 23, 1968.
Officer Semmed 'Nervors' the set of the attacking sest papers were still un-set terday afternoon by the Navy.
Officer Semmed 'Nervors' the least 10 bags filled with sect papers, were still un-set the attacking order to "methan an hour to burn the papers of the tattacking order the ship's packed. with hypersensitive tasks, whon the attacking order to "methan an hour to burn the papers of the tasting order di 'manader Bucher's order to 'pre-tacking were released this afternoon by the Navy.
Officer Semmed 'Nervors' the least 10 bags filled with secret papers, were still un-set the attacking order de 'methan an hour to burn the papers or from the Norm the opening salvo, when Commander Bucher's order to 'pre-tacking order de 'methan an hour to burn the papers or from the solution, whole secret salvo, when Commander Bucher's order to 'pre-tacking order de 'methan an hour to burn the papers or from the opening salvo, when Commander Bucher's order to 'pre-tacking order de 'methan an hour to burn the papers or from the opening salvo, when Commander Bucher's order to 'pre-tacking order de 'methan an hour to burn the papers or the tast signaled, 'Heave' hounded the Pueblo as suf-tater three torpedo boats sur-atterpts were made to toss ma-marine chaser signaled, 'Heave' hounde the pueblo as suf-tacking vere reased fire.
North Koreans opened fire. Show the court for his show the court for his sho

By BERNARD WEINRAUB Special to The New York Times CORONADO, Calif., Feb. 11 The burning of the Pueblo's coret papers in the intelligence larter of the ship lasted 10 The Navy release said that the is opinion of Lieutenant Harris, Senior Chief Communications Technician Kell replied, "He is Technician Kell "observed dur-Just before the attack. Technician Kell replied that is the present Word to commence emergency

Lasted 10 to 15 Minutes

throw equipment through a porthole, across the passage-way from the research space, but the sergeant was unable to open the hatch, he said. Another attempt to scuttle material was made by Commu-nications Technician 2d Cl. Almost immediately, the 23-year-old crewman was 'struck in the neck by shrapnel, the witness testified. In Technician Bouden's tes-timony, the 40-year-old Idahoan recalled that the crewmen were ordered to the mess deck after receiving word to stop destroy-ing material. The order was ap-