News Guild Tells $900,000 in Grants

WASHINGTON —(UPI) — he did not, no union officer touching the Granary and The American Newspaper did.

Guild said today it has re- Guild said today it has re- have not ceived more than $900,000 since 1960 from five private foundations.

It denied knowingly taking any under-the-table money from the CIA, however.

The Central Intelligence Agency's financing of a wide variety of international activities has been disclosed as been channeled having through private foundations.

Two of those that gave the Guild money are said to be CIA conduits.

TIES UNKNOWN

The Guild's secretarytreasurer, Charles Perlik, said if any of the money the union got from the foundations came from the CIA, he CIA financing have mendal, is said to be a trustee of did not know it — and that if tioned complicated pipelines the Anderson Foundation.

is receiving funds from three been mentioned, but they degroups — the Chesapeake Foundation, Baltimore; the Board-Hi Foundation, Columbus, Ohio, and the Warden Trust, Cleveland.

The total received from these, and the Granary Fund, Boston, and the Andrew Hamilton Fund, Philadelphia, since 1960 ran to Hoblitzelle Foundation more than $900,000, Perlik Dallas and the M. D. Andersaid.

the money received from the other three since then totals $615,000.

PIPELINES

The other three have not clined to discuss their money sources.

The Washington Post said today two Texas-based foundations, each with an officer who is a close friend of President Johnson, have been receiving CIA money.

They were identified as the son Foundation of Houston.

He said the latter two halted contributions in 1965 and the money received from the son Nov. 22, 1963, is reported to ve a trustee of the Hoblitzelle Foundation.

Leon Jaworski, mored as a possibility for ap-Previous disclosures of pointment as attorney gener-