KENNEDY DEFENDS FINANCING BY C.1

Made by Executive Branch

By MARJORIE HUNTER

today it was unfair to let the tary. Central Intelligence Agency "take the rap" for secretly

"take the rap" for secretly viser to his brother, President financing private groups.

Basic decisions for the secret subsidies, he said, were made by "the executive branch in the Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson Administrations."

Viser to his brother, President Kennedy, had been aware of the C.I.A. subsidy policy, Mr. Mankiewicz said:

"The Senator knew the Government was financing some students at international conferences, and that this was substituted by with C.I.A. money."

the embattled agency came The strongest Administration after sharp criticism of the criticism of the C.I.A. link with after sharp criticism of the private groups, including stu-C.I.A. by two high Administra-tion officials — Vice President Humphrey and John W. Gardner, Vice President Humphrey and Scarptager of Hoelth, Editories Stanford, University in Palo Humphrey and John W. Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

The New York Democrat's comments were made in interviews with United Press International and The Association, Mr. Humphrey said, was views with United Press International and The Association, Mr. Humphrey said, was deed Press and were later confirmed by his office.

The Senator made similar restricted for the confirmed by his office.

The Senator made similar restricted for the confirmed by his office.

day on the level of White House involvement in formulating the subsidy policy.

However, his office said that the Senator had not meant to leave the impression that any of the three Presidents-Says Basic Decision Was Eisenhower, Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Johnson — had personally directed the policy.

"What the Senator said was that the decision was made at

By MARJORIE HUNTER

Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21—
Senator Robert F. Kennedy said

Asked if Senator Kennedy, as Attorney General and close ad-viser to his brother, President ohnson Administrations." students at international of ferences, and that this visconator Kennedy's defense of probably with C.I.A. money.

firmed by his office.

The Senator made similar remarks at a luncheon with newsmen last week, but declined at the time to be quoted by name.

Agencies Approached

Senator Kennedy said today that "all relevant Government agencies" were approached for approval of the basic decision on C.I.A. subsidies.

"That includes the White House," he said. "If the policy was wrong, it was not the product of the C.I.A. but of each Administration."

While not passing on the mer-

Administration."

While not passing on the merits of the policy, Senator Kennedy added:

"We must not forget that we are not dealing with a dream world, but with a very tough adversary."

The Senator was not available for further comment later to-done the job," he said.