SENATORS STUDY C.I.A.'S SUBSIDIES

Ex-Student Aides Heard at 3-Hour Secret Session

WASHINGTON, March 6 (AP)

-The Senate Foreign Relations Committee held a three-hour secret inquiry today into Central Intelligence Agency subsidies to the National Student Associa-

Senator J. W. Fulbright, Demsenator J. W. Filloright, Definerat of Arkansas who is chairman of the committee, then told newsmen "it's none of your business" what went on.

There were two witnesses, both former officers of the student aggregation, and they were dent association, and they were questioned separately.

The committee's independent inquiry ran counter to the stand of the Senate majority leader, An

"and 1 don't care to common it."

Senator Wayne Morse, Democrat of Oregon, said the session had left him more convinced that the intelligence agency should be "drastically limited" in its activities.

Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, March 6

charge of student association fund-raising programs, testified first. He then was dismissed while Philip Sherburne, former president of the association, was questioned.

Mr. Sherburne said later the committee had asked him to appear, but he would not discuss his testimony.

"We've had an executive meeting," Mr. Fulbright said, "and I don't care to comment on it."

Senator Wayne Morse, Democrat of Oregon, said the session had left him more convinced that the intelligence agency should be "drastically" for the united funds from the intelligence agency and called for the "complete cessation" of secret funding of private organizations by that agency.

A statement signed by 12 of the council's 14 student directors of the consilist organizations in the united ing of private organizations by chapters on 400 American college campuses, said the "duplications in the united ing of private organizations by that agency.

A statement signed by 12 of the council's 14 student directors of the Colagency and called for the "complete cessation" of secret funding of private organizations by chapters on 400 American college campuses, said the "duplications in the intelligence agency and called for the "complete cessation" of secret funding of private organizations by that agency.

A statement signed by 12 of the council's 14 student directors of the council's 1

Mike Mansfield, Democrat of Montana, who said again today that he sees no need for a special investigation of the subsidies.

Michael Wood, formerly in charge of student association fund-raising programs, testified first. He then was dismissed while Philip Sherburne, former president of the association, was questioned.

Michael Wood, formerly in charge of student association fund-raising programs, testified first. He then was dismissed while Philip Sherburne, former president of the association, was questioned.

Michael Wood, formerly in ceived secret funds from the confunds from the intelligence Matter Council for the Collegiate council, founded in 1946, said it had received no funds from the intelligence agency and called for the "complete cessation" of secret fund-waitions, an organization with ing of private organizations by chapters on 400 American coll-that agency.

the experience of student groups during the experience of student groups should be "drastically ited" in its activities.

Students Ask-Open Help

By BEN A. FRANKLIN

Special to The New York Times
VASHINGTON, March 6 — American student group agency now be "funded by intelligence agency funds.

American student group agency now be "funded by intelligence agency funds.

The experience of student groups during the 1950's, when there was popular suspicion and "Mc-Carthyite fear and mistrust of liberal groups, particularly of youth and students," indicated that it was vital that private philanthropies probable assistance from the intelligence agency funds.