Chile Increasingly Blames 'International Conspirac

By JUAN de ONIS Special to The New York Times

SANTIAGO, Chile, March 16

The emphasis on an "exter-nal enemy" in the official state-ments and Marxist press is of growing concern to Americans here, who fear that Dr. Al-lende's stated policy of main-taining good relations with the United States is under pressure from circumstances and radical elements. The emphasis on an "exter-al enemy" in the official stateelements.

uled levels.

The Minister of Mines, Or-Teniente pays an $8-million jail here on charges of having As Chile's economic and po-lando Cantuarias, has said that debt to Kennecott and a simi-violated Chile's "economic ses and radical 000 tons. Jaime Faivoich, general Government counsel of the Chilean State Corporation, which elements. Criticism by Government spokesmen has focused on the sensitive area of copper, the economic sector in which United States private invest-ment is heaviest, totaling more than $700-million. Since Dr. Allende sent to Congress a constitutional change under which the copper industry will be nationalized, production at the major mines has been falling short of sched- Chile must retain Kennecotts nordia group, including one management services until El United States citizen, are in SANTIAGO, Chile, March 16 —As Chile's economic and po-lando Cantuarias, has said that lando that "badly.con-cived technical plans" and poor mining practices, designed in production. Industry sources attribute wich are speech that he downs with new equipment, la-entrely under Chilean manage-lando that "badly.con-attes subort foreigners and becoming.an issue in the cam-lando that "badly con-since Dr. Allende took office. Has given muncipal lecitons ore far among families living at the solated mines have place with fare on charges of ha unicipal lando that the foridal state onordia Finance of Zurich, man. But constant Political at through agents of the United States some fear among families living at the isolated mines h file a deposition by a former employe of a retail credit.company who says he agreed to falsify Mr. Edwards's credit rating file and that the letter Mr. Edwards was carrying here was dictated by him as part of a ruse to obtain a favorable credit standing.

The members of the Internordia group under arrest are being held incommunicado under court orders. [United Press International reported Tuesdaythat Mr. Edwards was said to so be suffering from "a cardia" infection" and was receiving medical treatment in the Santia ago prison.] Meanwhile, the opposition Christian Democratic party has charged through its president, Senator Narciso Irureta, that the copper deal here included an offer by the group to pay kickbacks from $2 to $7 a ton to unidentified Government copper officials.