Assassination Suspects Slain in Chile

Assassination Suspects Slain in Chile

By JUAN de ONIS
Special to The New York Times
SANTIAGO, Chile, June 13
—Two left-wing extremists ac cused of killing a Christain Democratic leader Tuesday died today in a dawn gunfight with the police.
Roland Rivera Calderon, 26 years old, who allegedly machine-gunned Edmundo Perez Zukovic, fell dead, machine-gunned Edmundo Perez Zukovic wer seriously wounded.

A brother, Arturo Rivera Calderon, 20, had a bullet er Rivera Calderon, 20, had a bullet er Rivera Calderon gire. The death of the died a few hours later after the fugitives made their stand, He died a few hours later after the fugitives made their stand, He died a few hours later after of the police found arms, ammunition for their machine surgery. The police said he had committed suicide.

Six other persons, three men hand three women, were armed with grenades the police found arms, ammunition for their machine surgery. The police said he had scommitted suicide.

The grage, a large cinder, before the police found arms, ammunition for their machine surgery. The police said he had committed suicide.

The grage, a large cinder, before the police found arms, ammunition for their machine, and some homemade bombs. The death of the Rivera Calderon was a member of an extremstive pay-roll holdup two weeks ago in a suspermarket pay-roll holdup two weeks ago in a suspensate pay-roll when the police found arms, ammunition for their machine, and three women, were armed with grenades the police found arms, ammunition for their machine, and the police found arms, ammunition for their machine, and the police found arms, ammunition for their machine, and the police found arms, ammunition for their machi